Article (3): Policy Interpretation

3.1 Interpretation Rules

3.1.1 This Policy and the addendums attached thereto (if any) are considered an integral part thereof, and complementary to its clauses and shall be read and interpreted therewith for this purpose.

3.1.2 This Policy is directed and addresses job positions and not the people in charge of them.

3.1.3 All headings in this Policy are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of the Policy provisions as a whole.

3.1.4 This Policy prevails over any other Policy on the same subject that may conflict therewith.

3.1.5 The Board is entitled to set rules and executive policies for this Policy.

3.1.6 This Policy is formulated in accordance with the jus cogens in the CG Regulations issued by the Authority. In the event that the Authority decides, at any time, to consider any provision in the CG Regulations as jus cogen rather than a complementary, then this Policy is read in light of that, and the complementary provision becomes as jus cogen by force of law and an integral part of this Policy. In the event that a complementary provision is included in this Policy in the form of a jus cogen, this shall not prejudice its remaining complementary and not binding until the Authority decides otherwise.

3.1.7 The Company's application of any of the guidelines, steadily or incidentally, does not prejudice the provision to remain guiding unless a special resolution is issued by the Board or the Authority otherwise. The Company is entitled to exchange between applying and not applying the guiding provision in accordance with what it decides in this regard, and it is not allowed in any way to consider approval of this Policy/ regulation as an approval for the guiding provisions contained therein to be mandatory.

3.2 Sources of Judging the Incident

3.2.1 The provisions of this Policy apply to the issues dealt with in these provisions in their terms and meanings, and there is no justification for effort in the source of the provision.
